

Wheelchair Basketball

Friday 9th December

After the success of the Olympic and Paralympic Games, we invited a company into school, who promote the awareness and participation of wheelchair basketball to young people.

Students participated in this activity, fully engaging and building on their empathy and understanding of disability in sport and the challenges that disabled people face. The students enjoyed the activity so much and the group leaders were so impressed with them, that they will be returning to Kettlebrook later this term.

