

Back by popular demand, the Zoolab Team came back to educate (scare) everyone with some weird and wonderful mini beasts! Pupils and staff had the opportunity to learn about and handle spiders, cockroaches, mice and even a snake!!!

Although very scary looking, this giant millipede is actually harmless and only eats dead leaves. If you count it has about 200 legs!!!

