

We are so excited about the prospect of having some furry friends in school! Mrs Potter has bought some gorgeous guinea pigs which she is going to share with KSSS and she will bring them in to school several days each week.

They are only 8 weeks old but they are already real characters and love cuddles and food!

Students have put their choice of names in a hat and they will be drawn soon! So watch this space!

